

CRIMECALL

The Sam Maguire Cup has been reported stolen and you are part of the Garda team sent to Croke Park to investigate.

You suspect that the Cup has been taken out of Ireland and you have been asked to write a detailed forensic description of the Sam Maguire for circulation to all the countries in Europe.

(Read pp 14 – 15 All about Gaelic Football for information)

You will also have to write a very short piece for the Crimecall reporter to read out, and you will need a good picture of the Cup to go with your piece. You can draw the picture yourself.

You can use the boxes below to complete your reports

Actual Crimecall reports can be read at: <http://www.garda.ie/angarda/crimeline.html>
