

THE STORY OF IRELAND

Time Travel: Activity 3

In the previous activity you wrote about who would you choose to interview if you could travel back in time. Now think of five questions to ask them. List your questions, explain why you are asking these questions, and write the answers you think the person you have chosen would give to your questions in the box below.