

COUNTY COLOURS

Each province of Ireland has its own tradition with Gaelic Sports and loads of interesting information to discover (read pages 10 – 13 of All About Gaelic Football to find out more).

Do some research on your province and find out:

- Five well known facts about your province/county
- Five little known facts about your province/county
- Five facts about your county team
- Five interesting places for visitors of your county to see/do

Use the box below to draw a player in your county colours. You can use the second box to suggest a new design, using the same colours. What will your design look like?
